

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Core Courses

INTL 1101 Introduction to International Studies

One Course from each of the three Advanced Core Areas:

- ❖ Economic Awareness
- ❖ Geo/Political Awareness
- ❖ Social/Cultural Awareness

Foreign Language

Students are expected to demonstrate competency in a foreign language related to the area studies concentration they have selected. Requirement is completion of the equivalent of 2 courses in the target language at the 3000 level or above.

Area Concentration

Five area studies concentrations are available. With each concentration you will be required to complete an introductory course.

- ❖ Africa - Introduction to African Studies (INTL 2101)
- ❖ Asia - Introduction to Asian Studies (INTL 2201)
- ❖ Europe - Introduction to European Studies (INTL 2301)
- ❖ Latin America (no new students in this concentration after Fall 2010) - Introduction to Latin American Studies (INTL 2401)
- ❖ Comparative Studies - As agreed upon by an advisor and a student.

An additional 12 hours of elective credits from approved courses within the student's selected area studies concentration must be completed.

International Experience

Students are required to complete an international experience related to the area studies concentration they have selected. This may be fulfilled through participation in a formal study abroad program, or through foreign-based work, service, or internship activities. This experience must be specified and approved by an advisor. Academic credits earned may be applied to the requirements of the major. A US-based experience of an international nature or prior international experience may be considered.
